NORTH-CAROLINA & NORFOLK.—THE PRACTICAL HATTERS would respectfully call the attention of the "Trade" and "Dealers" to their stock of the largest and best that has ever been offered in Norfolk, and not surpassed by any, and at prices that cannot fail to give satisfaction. They are confident that Merchants will find it to their advantage to call before making their purchases. Those that are willing to extend to us their patronage may rely on having Goods, whether of our own Manufacture or Imported, as Fashionable, Fine and Cheap as any Northern Jobber. We earnestly request Merchants to call and be convinced that we are prepared and will furnish every thing in our line on the best terms.

SPRING 1854.—WHOLESALE BOOT AND SHOE TRADE, Petersburg, Va. We take pleasure in announcing to the Merchants of Virginia and North Carolina, that one of our house has just returned from the North and East, where he has purchased an extensive and commanding stock of Boots, Shoes, Brogans, Trunks, Carpet Bags, Valices, Wrapping Paper, Lacings, &c., and all other articles belonging to our branch of business.
Our assortment this season will be much larger and more varied than heretofore, in order to meet the demands of a rapidly increasing trade. Our goods have all been bought of First Hands, and selected with great care by an old buyer, of thirty years experience, with special reference to the wants of the Virginia and North Carolina Merchants.
We are now in receipt of a portion of our stock and are in daily expectation of large accessions thereto, which will render our assortment one of the most complete and attractive ever offered to the Southern Trade.
In soliciting an examination we assure our friends and the public generally, that our prices shall be found as low and as reasonable as those of any similar establishment south of Massachusetts.
☞ Merchants and others buying by the Package or Dozen will find it to their interest to examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere, as it is our determination to sell as cheap as any of our northern competitors.

TO THE PUBLIC.—THE SUBSCRIBER IS pleased to inform the public that his CHOLERA AND DIARRHŒA MEDICINE affords more prompt relief in the various affections of the Bowels, and consequently more satisfaction to all who have used it, than any other Medicine ever offered to the public. The following are among many testimonials of its efficacy:

Dr. R. H. WORTHINGTON—Dear Sir: I take much pleasure in adding my testimony to others in favor of your remedy for Bowel Affections, &c., having so frequently experienced its beneficial results in my own case, as well as in many others to whom I have given it. I carried a bottle of it with me to Baltimore, (and here permit me to say, I would as soon think of traveling without money as without this remedy,) and finding many among my acquaintances there who were suffering with various forms of Bowel Affections, I gave it freely, and in NO INSTANCE did it fail to afford the MOST PROMPT AND DECIDED RELIEF, as it has done here. I congratulate you, and especially the public, on the discovery of a medicine which is better calculated to protect mankind and alleviate suffering, than any other ever brought before the people. L. T. SPIERS.

This is to certify that, some weeks back, I was taken with a violent Diarrhœa, which persisted for eight days. Being some sixty miles from home, I made use of all the remedies I could think of, but without affording any relief. On arriving at home, I was informed that Dr. R. H. Worthington had prepared a remedy for Cholera, &c., and was advised to use it. I did so, and to my astonishment, one single dose gave speedy and permanent relief, since which time I have used it frequently in my family; and in justice to the Doctor say, I consider it much the most valuable Medicine I have used in an experience of twenty years.
F. M. CAPEHART.
Murfreesboro', N. C., Oct. 2, '54.

Dr. WORTHINGTON—Dear Sir: I take great pleasure in recommending your Cholera Medicine to the public, and more especially since I have had personal experience and observation of its beneficial effects.
I have tried several remedies put up for Cholera, &c., but have never found such happy results from any as from your invaluable remedy. I have such unbounded confidence in its efficacy, that I am unwilling and will not leave home without a supply with me; and I regard it as one of the most valuable discoveries of the age. Yours, truly,
W. P. BEAMAN.

WINDSOR, N. C., Sept. 19, '54.

Dr. R. H. WORTHINGTON—Dear Sir: I have made some effort, and have succeeded in introducing your Medicine to the public, and I find it is taking very well indeed; and the result is, that I have nearly sold what you sent me. I therefore wish you would send me some more as soon as you can. * * * I have not the slightest doubt but that this Medicine is the very best remedy out for the disease for which it is recommended. I hope you will soon send me a supply, as I would not like to get entirely out of it.
Yours, truly,
GEORGE W. McGLAUGHON.

[From the Murfreesboro' Gazette.]

MESSRS. EDITORS: In looking over the last number of the Gazette, I found a communication from our friend, Mr. L. T. Spiers, recommending Dr. R. H. Worthington's Cholera Mixture to the public, for the cure of Diarrhœa, Dysentery, and other kindred diseases. Having experienced in my own case, the happy effects of its use, as well as other members of my family, I can safely say that I regard it as superior to any remedy we have ever used, in an experience of twenty years. I would, therefore, recommend it to every family, as an invaluable remedy, and every individual to procure a bottle and keep it by them in these times of cholera.
R. R. PARKER.
Murfreesboro', Aug 30, '54.

This is to certify that I have used Dr. R. H. Worthington's Cholera Medicine in my family for the last four or five weeks, in several cases of Bowel Complaint, so common in our vicinity, with invariable success. One of the cases was that of a negro child, some four or five months old, who was so emaciated by the effects of the disease, that its life was nearly despaired of, when my wife happened to think that she would try the Cholera Medicine, and did so with complete success, in less than forty-eight hours. I am thoroughly of opinion that no family should be without so fine a medicine.
Given under my hand, this 3d day of October, '54.
A. W. DARDEN.

MURFREESBORO', N. C.

Dr. R. H. WORTHINGTON: It affords us pleasure to say, that we have used your Cholera Diarrhœa Medicine for the last twelve months, and have found it invariably successful, in relieving speedily the cases in which we have had occasion to use it. We entertain a high appreciation of its value, and have no hesitation in expressing the opinion, that it will prove to be a valuable family medicine.

NOVEMBER 13, 1854.

SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED at this Office until 10 o'clock, A. M., of the 20th of December next, for the purchase of $111,000 in Bonds, issued by the State of North Carolina, under an Act of Assembly for the construction of the Weldon & Gaston Railroad, and for the improvement of the navigation of the Neuse and Tar rivers. They are by express enactment exempt from taxation for any purpose. They will bear date the 1st of July, 1854, will run ten years, and will have coupons attached for the interest at six per cent. per annum, payable the first days of January and July in each year. Both interest and principal will be payable at the Bank of the Republic in the city of New York, unless where the purchaser prefers to have them payable at the Treasury of this State. They will be issued in sums of $1,000 each. Parties bidding will please address their letters endorsed, "Proposals for N. Carolina stocks," to the undersigned at Raleigh, N. C. They will also state in what kind of funds they propose to pay. The bids will be opened on the 20th December next, in the presence of the Governor, Secretary and Comptroller of State, and G. W. Mordecai, President of the Bank of the State of N. C. The undersigned reserves the right of accepting such bids in whole or in part, as he may deem most advantageous to the State. Successful bidders will be required, as soon as informed of the acceptance of their bids, to deposit in Bank the amount of their bids, with the accrued interest from the 1st of July last, to the credit of the Treasurer of N. C. This deposit may be made in the Bank of the Republic, N. York, the Bank of the State of N. C., or the Bank of Cape Fear, Raleigh. Documents showing the great resources of the State, and the small amount of her indebtedness, may be had on application at this office, or to Messrs. Brown & DeRossett, city of New York.

5,200 ACRES of TURPENTINE Land FOR SALE.—We offer for sale a tract of Pine Land containing about 5,200 acres, situated in Onslow county, adjoining the New Hanover county line. The Holly Shelter road from Wilmington to Jacksonville and Richlands, runs through it. There are 11 crops of Boxes on the land now in successful working condition, a Turpentine Still, capable of running 30 barrels, a Dwelling House, Store and Warehouse, Cooper's and Blacksmiths shops, Barns, Stables, Negro Houses, and in fact every thing necessary for the prosecution of the business; 16 mules, 6 waggons, timber carriages, &c., stock of cattle and hogs. The produce of the land is hauled 9 miles to navigable water for flat boats at all seasons of the year. The timber is hauled 5½ miles to a Creek. There is a considerable quantity of good timber on the land, and lightwood for making tar in abundance.
The above presents a favorable opportunity for Turpentine and Timber dealers, to make an investment which cannot fail to be highly remunerative. There are no Stills within 10 miles of the place, and consequently no competition in the purchase of the raw material. The subscribers having other business to attend to cannot give the place proper attention, and will sell the whole, or an interest of one-half to a competent person who will take charge of the premises and conduct the business. Patent Door and Gate Spring.

R. W. INMAN, FROM SHEFFIELD, ENGLAND, Manufactory of "Inman's Patent Door and gate Spring," to which was awarded the first premium at the World's Fair in London, 1851, announces that he has substituted Mr. John Creech, merchant of Raleigh, his sole agent for the counties of Wake, New Hanover, Cumberland, Wayne, Johnston and Orange, in the State of North Carolina. For neatness, simplicity, and full performance of all it is intended to do—its exceeding usefulness, its durability and its cheapness, it certainly takes its position in the first rank of modern invention.
We do not intend to puff—a single examination will convince the judgment of its utility.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE.—BEING prevented by my profession from attending properly to agricultural pursuits, I offer for sale my plantation upon the Roanoke and upon Stone House and Pretty creeks, in the counties of Warren and Halifax, containing 998 acres. The tract is situated about seven miles above Gaston, and four miles from the Littleton Depot on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad. It contains about one hundred acres of excellent low grounds. The balance of the land is generally productive, and well adpted to the growth of the usual crops of this section of the State. The overseer's house, negro houses, stables, barns, and other plantation improvements are good. The water is excellent, and the situation of the buildings is believed to be healthy. It is deemed useless to give a more particular description of the property, as it is presumed that no one would purchase without a careful examination. My overseer will show the land to persons who may desire to examine it. In order to allow a man of enterprise an opportunity to pay a considerable portion of the purchase money out of the crops, I am willing to sell the land upon a credit of one and two years. The purchaser, if he thinks proper, can also buy upon reasonable terms, most of my crop of corn, fodder and oats, and also my stock and plantation utensils. Letters upon the subject many be addressed to me at Warrenton, N. C.

Mr. Settle opposed the motion for reconsideration as the rule objected to was required to put an end to the scenes so often exhibited in the legislature of North Carolina.

Mr. Phillips was against the adoption of the rule, as he wished to protect the rights of the minority. He appealed to the debates in the House of Representatives to prove that it had not the effect intened, and maintained that the motion to lay upon the table was quite sufficient to protect the house from prolixity.

Mr. Shepherd was opposed to the introduction of such a rule, and while he regretted differing from some of his friends with whom he usually agreed, felt bound to support the motion for reconsideration. The experience of past legislation had proved such a rule unnecessary, and as far as his experience went he saw no reason why it should now be established. He preferred depending upon the honesty and integrity of the legislature, much more than the use of any power of compelling members whether they be friends or opponents. His convictions upon the subject were strengthened by the opinion of one who had filled the chair of the House, who was adverse to such a rule being adopted.

Mr. Singeltary, in reply to the member from Orange, stated that if moving the previous question had not the effect of shortening the debates in the House of Representatives, it could work no injury to the rights of the minority here. The last legislature proved the necessity of such a rule, as the Speaker was obliged to ride down all rules of law and order to prevent revolution. The motion to lay on the table does not effect the purpose as asserted, for it not only stops debate but also the measures under discussion. The adoption of the rule would prevent these appeals to physical endurance which are so often witnessed. He hoped the House would not reconsider.

Mr. Phillips made some remarks in reply, that moving the previous question does not advance the public business.

Mr. Mebane was not aware when he voted on Saturday that the previous question was incorporated in the motion, therefore wished for reconsideration as he was taken by surprise.

Mr. Vance requested the opponents of the previous question to reflect that by prolonging the debate they were proving the necessity for such a rule.

The motion to lay on the table was rejected—yeas 31, nays 79.

Mr. Singeltary then withdrew the resolution.

Mr. Steele introduced a bill to amend the Constitution of the State of North Carolina. Read the first time, referred to the committee on Constitutional reform and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Mann of Pasquotank, introduced a bill to repeal the 18th section of the act incorporating the City of Elizabeth, which was read the first time.

Upon motion the rules were suspended, the bill was read second and third times and passed, and ordered to be engrossed and sent to the Senate.

Mr. Shepherd introduced a bill making Rail Road Companies in the State responsible for damages, to an amount not exceeding $5000 in cases of loss of life through negligence, &c. Read the first time, referred to the committee on the judiciary and odrered to be printed.

Mr. Rose of Rowan introduced a bill to provide for paying talis jurors in the county of Rowan. Read the first time.

Mr. Green introduced a bill to amend the act for incorporating the Atlantic and N. C. Rail Road Company. Read the first time and referred to the committee on internal improvements.

A message from the Senate concurring in the proposition to raise a joint selectcommittee upon the revised statutes.

Also a message proposing to raise a joint select committee to count the votes cast for Governor of the State.

Also a message concurring in the proposition to elect a Solicitor for the fourth district on Wednesday next at 12 o'clock.

A message was sent to the Senate concurring in the proposition to raise a joint select committee to count the votes cast for the Governor of the State, and appointing Messrs. Williams and Gorrell on the part of the House.

On motion of Mr. Amis the House adjourned till Tuesday morning 10 o'clock.

HARD TIMES AND THE CAUSES THEREOF.

There is more truth than poetry, in the following which we extract from the Baltimore Correspondence of the Washington Star:

Our country at present is in a very bad way. People have been living too high. Pride, that monster, by which angels have fallen, has a fearful responsibility, and must be called to dread account in answering for these sins. Ladies must appear in hundred and five hundred—yea, thousand dollar dresses. A handkercheif worth less than $6, $15, $25, and even $50, is common. The beautiful and fashionable Miss C. cannot be allowed to out-do Miss A. Hence an emulation is engendered, stomachers of gems glitter upon young damsels until their fathers' purses groan and cry for mercy. Miss M. is out shopping.—She makes bills here and there, but a day of reckoning comes, and it is even now at hand.

Fast young men cannot move upon the retrograding scale. They have graduated in that school whose maxim is, "Go it while your're young!" Broadcloths of the finest texture, and all else in proportion, must be sported. Fast horses, dogs, guns, and other appendages. Good wines, brandies and similar luxuries cannot be done without. To sum up all in a nutshell. These elegant gentlemen and exquisits ladies are emphatically consumers. They do nothing, produce nothing, and their gold, or that of their fathers, goes indirectly to Europe to pay for articles which are absorbed in nothing. A five hundred dollar veil, a thousand dollar silk dress or a hundred dollar kerchief, when reduced to its intrinsic substance—that is, ashes—has not more than nutriment enough to fructify ten grains of wheat. By this system of fast living, superinduced through false pride, Europe gets our gold and we get her dross. Is it to be wondered, then, that people complain of hard times and a tight money market. Young gentlemen and young ladies ponder upon these things! Think, while you are votaries of pride and apers of abominable fashion, that your fathers may be writhing in mental agony, and loaded, bowed, to the very earth with peuniary embarrassments. Beauty may for a time shine attractively in borrowed plumage, but when unmasked is repulsive. I would rather wear a garment of linsy-woolsy, paid for, have an easy conscience and be free from debt, than bear the crown the Bourbons wore—a subject, yes even a slave, of the importuning, perhaps unfeeling, creditor or merciless dun.

RESURRECTION OF THE NATIONAL WHIGS. No formal protest against the Auburn Convention issued from the "national" Whigs of New York, until the eve of the election, when the following letter was published in the newspapers:

"DEAR SIR: Upon consultation among a number of National Whigs from different parts of the State, it has been deemed advisable to call a convention to assemble at this place early in January, to reinstate the Whig party on its old platform recently discarded at Auburn. It is proposed to issue an address to the Whigs throughout the State, in which the principles of the National Whig party will be plainly declared, expressing a decided opposition to the Nebraska bill, as a violation of the Missouri Compromise and adhering to the Whig principles established by the National Convention at Baltimore, in 1852; pledging ourselves to oppose all propositions for the fusion of the Whig party with any other for the purpose of forming a sectional party based upon the agitations of the day. The time for decisive action has arrived, and the coming winter will determine whether a National Whig party shall cease to exist. Should your views coincide with those therein expressed, be pleased to forward your name, together with the names of such other reliable men in your neighborhood as you may select, to James Kidd, Esq. of this city, without delay, that they may be printed with the address.

By order of the Committee,

FRANCIS GRANGER."

This movement is of very little interest to us of the South; for, in the first place, it contemplates the restoration of the Whig party on the basis of opposition to the Nebraska Bill; and, in the second place, it must result in ridiculous failure. Considering that the great issue between the North and the South is the reinstatement of the Missouri restriction, one would think Mr. Francis Granger could not claim much sympathy of us in behalf of his desperate enterprise. For desperate we must regard it when we recollect the power of Seward and the strength of the Auburn organization.

It is absurd in these days to talk of basing any stable political organization on "the principles of the Whig party." Those principles, one and all, are obsolete; and other living, urgent issues press upon the public mind. The "National" Whigs of New York may take some heart from the disgraceful defeat of Clark, and the Saratoga ticket, but this experiment to revive the Silver Grey organization of 1848, will simply serve to illustrate their impotence. The only hope of making head against Seward, rests on the possibility of restoring the harmony and supremacy of the Democracy. Rich Enq.

THE NEXT CONGRESS. Sixteen States have held their elections, choosing 137 members, 99 of whom are opponents of the administration, and the remaining 38 committed to its support. The following table will exhibit the relative changes which have already taken place:

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, NOV. 29, 1854.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Our Weekly readers will find in our paper to-day the proceedings of the two Houses from Tuesday the 21st to Monday the 27th inclusive, and our Semi-weekly readers from Friday to Monday inclusive.

The first week of the session has been remarkable for the harmony which has existed, as well as for the amount of business disposed of. Both Houses have been organized, two United States' Senators and two Solicitors have been elected—the rules of order for the two Houses have been examined, amended and adopted—the Standing Committees have been announced, and various other Committees appointed; and the Legislature, having gotten rid of such matters as were calculated to excite members and embarrass its proceedings, is now in a condition to proceed calmly and dispassionately with the public business.

The Democratic Assembly of 1854-'5 may, thus far, be looked to by Democrats in all parts of the State with gratification and pride.

A Solicitor for the Rockingham District is to elected this week; and we presume also a Comptroller. The present efficient and able Comptroller, Major Clarke, is not a candidate for re-election.

We refer our readers to the proceedings, which will be found interesting.

THE SENATORS ELECT.

The Hon ASA BIGGS, the Senator elect to succeed Mr. Badger, entered public life in 1835, as a member of the Convention to amend the State Constitution. He subsequently served as a member of the Commons and as a member of the Senate from Martin County, and took an active part in the debates and in the transaction of business. In 1845 he was a candidate for Congress in the Albemarle District, at that time a Whig District; and was elected by a handsome majority over the Hon. David Outlaw.

He is at present a member of the State Senate from the Counties of Martin and Washington.

Col. Biggs was appointed by Gov. Reid, in 1853, one of the Commissioners to revise the Statute Laws of the State, with the Hon. R. M. Saunders and B. F. Moore, Esq. This was a high compliment to his legal learning, and his labors in this department of duty have more than justified the fitness of the appointment.

Col. Biggs is distinguished for his sound common sense, his laborious habits, his patience in application to business, and his equanimity of disposition. He is a radical Democrat—not a leveller, but a Democrat of the Macon school—the advocate of economy and simplicity in public affairs, and the inflexible opponent of extravagance and mere display. Like his colleague, Gov. Reid, he is most popular, and the attachment of the people is strongest for him where he is best known.

The Hon. DAVID S. REID, Senator elect to fill the residue of the term commencing March 4th, 1853, is a name familiar in all mouths in North Carolina "as household words." He was elected, soon after he attained his majority, to a seat in the State Senate from Rockingham County, where he served, we believe, four years; and in 1843 he was chosen to the House of Representatives from the Rockingham District by a handsome majority over the most formidable opposition. He was re-elected in 1845, by a largely increased majority; and in 1848 he was nominated for the office of Governor. The Whigs were then in a majority in the State of from five to eight thousand. Gov. Reid took the flag of Democracy in his hands, and unfurled it with EQUAL RIGHTS inscribed upon its folds; and so earnestly, so eloquently, so faithfully did he contend with the opposition that the proud majority of thousands was reduced to about eight hundred. In 1850 he was again nominated, and was elected by nearly three thousand over Gov. Manly; and in 1852 he was re-elected by nearly six thousand majority—thus in four years effecting a clear gain for his party, in the popular vote, of between ten and twelve thousand. His administration of public affairs has given satisfaction to men of all parties while at the same time his popularity with his own party has been increased.

In electing Gov. Reid to the United States' Senate the Democratic members of Assembly have but obeyed the wishes of the party in all portions of the State; for his election, it was conceded, was to be assured, whoever might be chosen as his colleague.

The Senators elect are both in the meridian of life, the architects of their own fortunes, and their sympathies are largely with the masses of the people from whom they sprung. They are men of reason and judgment rather than of passion and rhetoric—men of head, and thought, and nerve, who can be depended on in the struggles and convulsions of the not distant future. They will go to Washington the fast friends of President Pierce's administration; and no Senators will stand more constantly or firmly by him so long as he adheres to the principles upon which his administration is based. What Dr. Blow said in the Commons of Col. Biggs, may be applied with much force to both the Senators elect—they "are in the South, of the South, and for the South"; yet they are for the Union on just principles, that is, according to the Constitution; and they are prepared to encourage, and sustain, and thank those sound Northern men like Douglas and Richardson, who are contending amid the hosts of freesoilers and abolitionists for the Constitutional rights of the slaveholding States.

The success of these gentlemen in public life, furnishes another and a striking illustration to the young men of the country of the importance of adhering to principle and party organization. For twenty years they have been faithful—strictly and entirely faithful both to their principles and to the usages of their party; others have wavered, fallen off, gone down, or re-united themselves again with the party—but no one can say that Reid or Biggs ever departed either from their principles, or opposed the organization of the Democratic party. True, loyal, laborious, patient, tried, they have been found worthy; and no one hails their elevation to the most illustrious body in the world with more gratification than the humble writer of this article.

☞ Eight gentlemen, who were members of the Convention of 1835 to amend the State Constitution, are members of the present Legislature, to wit: George Bower, Joshua Tayloe, David Outlaw, Daniel M. Barringer, Kenneth Rayner, Henry Cansler, Asa Biggs, and Thomas I. Faison.

SWISS BELL RINGERS. This celebrated company will be in Raleigh in about two weeks, and will give two of their grand musical concerts. Besides the "Bell Ringers," Signor Fittini will perform on the wonderful instrument called "Tronduenmephilipinotrosiamomento." A tender regard for jaw bones will prevent many persons from attempting to pronounce the name of the instrument, but the music is excellent.

HON. THOS. L. CLINGMAN.

This gentleman was in this City last week, and took his departure on Saturday morning for Washington City.

Mr. Clingman has been identified for some time past with the advocates of State rights, and has contributed much in the House of Representatives and before the people at home to the defence of Southern institutions. He is devotedly attached to his native land, and has been resolute and eloquent in his efforts to shield its peculiar interests from the advancing flood of Northern fanaticism. He possesses, and deservedly, to a remarkable degree the confidence and affection of his constituents. No man in the State has incurred more abuse at the hands of federal orators and presses than he has, for the course he has deemed it his duty to pursue. We doubt not that his course will continue to be the same in future Congresses; and that he will stand shoulder to shoulder as heretofore, with all true-hearted Southern men in the determination to maintain the equality of North Carolina in the Union or her independence of freesoil and abolition power out of it. If all the representatives from the South had occupied the same ground that Mr. Clingman has occupied during and since the slavery agitation of 1850, our rights and interests as a people would have been now much safer than they are under the assaults which are made upon them.

These are no new views of ours. We have long entertained them; and we have thought proper to avail ourselves of Mr. Clingman's recent presence among us to express them again.

☞ The "Don Quixotte Invincibles" of this part of the world were out on Saturday in all their artistic drollery and fun. It was a sight to make an anchorite shake his sides. We have not learned who took the prize for the best tilting or swiftest running, and do not wish to, as we think so remarkably of all of them that we should dislike to hear that any one of them had beaten the others. The exhibition was not postponed owing to the inclemency of the weather. We hope to see them out again about Christmas eve.

EXPLANATORY. By some mistake our Semi-weekly edition of last Saturday ran short, and we were compelled to send half sheets to a portion of our subscribers. These, however, contained all the important matter of the issue, and, with a promise to avoid a similar occurrence in the future, we beg indulgence for the past.

☞ The Whig members of the Legislature, it will be observed, voted for Mr. Barringer and Mr. Badger for the United States' Senate. Mr. Badger is a Nebraska man; and Mr. Barringer is understood to be for Nebraska and Cuba. "The union of the South for the sake of the South" is making progress. These are cheering signs. One voice, one determination, one front in the South and by the South would save the Union.

☞ We were gratified to hear Mr. Barringer and Mr. Steele, in their remarks in the Commons on Thursday last, speak as they did with reference to the result of the late elections in the Northern States. These gentlemen are far from rejoicing over what are called Whig triumphs in the States referred to.

BALLOON ASCENSION. Prof. George Elliott, the celebrated æronaut, will make an ascension from this place on Monday, the 11th of December next. He has made over 100 ascensions.

☞ We were pleased to see in his seat in the Senate on Monday last, William H. Thomas, Esq., who had been detained on his way by inflammation of the ankle. No constituency has a truer or more faithful representative than that of Mr. Thomas.

☞ Eugine Grissom, of Oxford, Graville County, has been appointed "Commissioner for the probate and acknowledgment of Deeds, Powers of Attorney, and other legal instruments," of the States of Virginia and Tennessee by the Governors thereof, in and for the State of North Caroliha.

☞ Bishop ATKINSON, having recently returned from his Fall visitation, preached in the Episcopal Church in this City on Sunday last, to a large and attentive congregation. The discourse was eminently sound and practical, and must have produced a good impression upon his hearers.

BY TELEGRAPH FROM RALEIGH. A despatch from Raleigh, dated this (Thursday) morning, informs us that Hon. Asa Biggs and Hon. David S. Reid, (our present Governor,) have been nominated by the Democratic caucus, for United States Senators, and will probably be elected to-day. Indeed, of their election there can be little or no doubt.

We are pleased to see these evidences of harmony in the Democratic party, and of a disposition to get through with elections immediately and promptly, so as to allow the undivided attention of the Legislature to be directed to the consideration of the various questions of general interest awaiting a solution at its hands. After the senatorships have been disposed of, there will still remain several elections to be made—a Judge, some Solictors, Secretary of State, Treasurer and Comptroller; but if the Senatorships be got through with without difficulty, no serious delay need be expected with the other offices.

The gentlemen nominated are "true and known Democrats." Of their fidelity to the principles of their party, there can be no question—of their devotion to the interests of North Carolina, there can be as little. The position which Governor Reid has occupied since 1848, when he first canvassed the State as Democratic candidate for Governor, up to the present time, has kept him prominently before the public and renders remark unnecessary. The majorities he has received at the hands of the voters of the State, mark their appreciation of his character and services, better than any words of ours. Mr. Biggs has been less in public life recently. He has shunned rather than sought public positions. He is well-known, however, as a gentleman of sound judgment and strong sense, an able lawyer, and a pure and reliable politician. It has so happened that in two conventions of the democratic party held at Raleigh—in 1850 and 1854—we have served on the same committee with Mr. Biggs, that on resolutions and business, and have had cause on both occasions to admire the clearness of his mind and the justness of his conclusions. As a Democrat, he is a man after our own heart, and in these days of twistings and turnings—of know-nothings and know-every-things, a genuine man—one who has known and fixed principles, and acts up to them, is a man indeed. Such a man is Asa Biggs. We look confidently for his election. Wil. Journal.

W. L. Pomeroy of Raleigh N. C. has by great exertion and enterprise built up a book store, which is almost unrivalled at the South, for the beauty of its arrangement and the sterling quality and variety of the works he has for sale. He has also introduced a new feature in the book trade south—cheapness. He has carried this feature especially into the sale of standard law and medical works, thereby enabling professional gentlemen of moderate means, to supply themselves with an amply stored select Library.

Mr. Pomeroy has lately published "Wood notes or North Carolina Carols" a collection of the choice poetry of various North Carolina bards, where the friends of Whiting, Henderson, Lovejoy, Holden, Simmons, Cantwell, Gaston and that charmingly sweet poetess "Tenella," L. Badger and others can have the pleasure of reading their choicest productions. (a review of which will shortly be given here.) It is a mystery to us how they have gotten up these beautiful two volumes so cheaply.

Mr. Pomeroy's will certainly be the great centre of attraction to members of the Legislature and visitors this winter Portsmouth Globe.

MR. EDITOR: In pursuance of a notice for the purpose, an Internal Improvement meeting of the citizens of Watauga County, was held at Boone in the Court House, and was well attended, on the 21st of November inst. The following proceedings were had:

On motion of E. F. Clewell, Esq., Reuben Mast, Esq., was called to the Chair, and William Horton appointed to act as Secretary.

E. F. Clewell, Esq, after a few remarks explanatory of the objects of the meeting, offered the following resolutions, which were ably advocated by him in a short address, and unanimously adopted by the meeting, to-wit:

Resolved, That North Carolina ought to aid by liberal appropriations the construction of a general system of internal improvements within her limits.

Resolved, That the works of improvement first in importance to the State are the construction of a Railroad from Wilmington to the State line in the direction of Cincinnati, and the extension of the Central Railroad east to Beaufort Harbor and west to the State line in the direction of Memphis.

Resolved, That in the present progress of improvement in our country railroads have become necessary highways, and when there is a reasonable probability that the people of any section of the State would build a Railroad if chartered, the Legislature cannot without injustice refuse them a charter.

Resolved, That the Secretary forward a copy of these resolutions to the Senator and Commoner for this County, and that he also forward copies for publication in the Register and Standard, and the Watchman and North Carolina Whig.

W. W. Lenoir, Esq., was then called upon and entertained the meeting by a spirited and able address in vindication of the resolutions adopted and upon the subject of Railroad improvement in general.

Some resolutions of a local character were then offered and adopted, whereupon, on motion of Dudley Farthing, Esq., it was

Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting be and are hereby tendered to the Chairman and Secretary for the discharge of their duties on this occasion.

The meeting then adjourned.

DREADFUL DEATH!

On Friday night, the 17th instant, in Chatham County, Millner Burke was burned up in his house. The particulars are as follows: Mr. Burke lived with his sister, no one else belonging to the family. The house caught on fire some time in the night; both the occupants were old and rather infirm. They were aroused by the crackling of the flames, and made their escape. He succeeded in taking out some articles of value, and returned again, although persuaded not to do so by his sister. The door some how or other closed upon him, and he never returned—he was incarcerated and entirely consumed by the devouring element. Mr. Burke was in his 76th year; was a consistent member of the church, and one of the most inoffensive and excellent citizens belonging to our County. A Republican of the old school, he never in a long life swerved for a moment from the Democratic doctrine; and in morals as in politics he was equally firm and consistent. He has left behind him many friends to mourn his untimely end, but no one can be found to say ought against his fair name. Requiescat in pace.

A POLITICAL PROPHECY FULFILLED AND FULFILLING. The following is an extract from a letter of Hon. B. F. Hallett to the democratic convention at Petersburg, Virginia, published October 1852. The predictions which it contains are now in the course of complete fulfilment. "A consolidation of all the isms into an exclusively sectional party at the North, whose vitality will be hostility to the South," is taking place; and the abolition politicians are "attempting to carry out a dismemberment of the North and South." But, as Mr. Hallett predicted, "they will fail."

"What is to follow the defeat of General Scott, (which now promises to be a rout and the total disbanding of the whig party,) is pretty well foreshadowed in the future. Mr. Calhoun prophesied that whichever was beaten at the North, in the election of 1848, would join the abolition party. This prophecy failed, because the democratic party of the North were beaten, and that party as a body, never has deserted the Union or severed from the South. The prophecy will be fulfilled when the Scott whigs of the North are defeated in 1852, unless political abolitionism shall cease to be an element in either of the two national parties which must always subsist in some opposite forms in this country. But we may rather look for a consolidation of all the isms into an exclusively sectional party at the North, whose vitality will be hostility to the South. This will revive the old struggle for a northern confederacy, which was once before attempted in our history, when the federal party at the North, finding they could not rule over the whole Union, determined to reign over New England and New York. That conspiracy was defeated by the union of the Democracy North and South. It did not then avow abolitionism, but engendered it in the Hartford Convention. In that council of disunionists the denial of representative rights to the South, and a prohibition against foreign-born citizens ever holding any office in the United States, were laid down as the basis of a Northern confederation.

The new conspiracy for a northern confederation will revive the old issues of separation, with abolitionism alone as its basis. The politicians of that school will attempt to carry out, as between States, what some of the religious associations have so unwisely pressed—a dismemberment of the North and South. They will fail, and the sectional politicians of the North will be out-voted even by the Union men of the North without the aid of the South; and with that aid the democratic party, as the constitutional party of the Union will be invincible, not only in its power as the united northern and southern democracy, but with them in such a contest will be found the whole body of Union whigs, (the commercial, manufacturing, substantial, business whigs) on the side of the party of the Union."

DEFEAT OF THE KNOW-NOTHINGS. The result of the elections in New York is especially interesting because of the insight it affords into the real strength of the Know-Nothing party. In these elections, for the first time since its organization, the Know-Nothing order nominated a distinct and independent ticket. And they availed themselves of a peculiary favorable conjuncture of circumstances for an exhibition of their strength. After three candidates for the Governorship were already in the field, they brought forward a man who was the Whig nominee for the office of Attorney General in 1852, and who, on account of his popularity with the Silver Greys, would certainly draw off a large vote from the Auburn and Saratoga ticket. The event justifies this calculation, for it is ascertained that the "national Whigs" constituted no inconsiderable proportion of Ullman's support. Despite these adventages, the Know-Nothing candidate is badly beaten.

Again, in the city of New York, the Know-Nothings attempted to play the same game. They brought forward a candidate for the Mayoralty, when three men had already been nominated for the office, and they were defeated. The result in these elections is conclusive of the fact that the power of Know-Nothingism is a fiction. Subsequent events will tell the same story. Rich. Enq.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE. It is rumored that the message of the President, which for some years past has been sent to the postmasters in advance, to be delivered to the newspaper offices as soon as read at Washington, will be withheld this year until it is sent to Congress. Our foreign relations, it is said, make this course necessary, as it is advisable the President shall receive the latest European intelligence before his message is submitted. Balt. Sun.

The Governor's Message appears on our outside to-day. It is a document that will interest the great body of the people. We are pleased with the Governor's suggestion in regard to the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind. If the Executive were associated with the Board, the hands of the latter would be greatly strengthened. Gov. Reid has been an attentive friend to the Institution, and we hope his successors will copy his example. Raleigh Post.

From our Washington Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Nov. 25, 1854.

A Short Letter—Sebastopol still Standing—Unfaunded Rumors—The Slave Trade in New York—Governor's Message—N. C. Senators—Financial Affairs—Know-Nothings and Mr. Rayner.

The pressure on your columns during the session of the Legislature of your State admonishes me to reduce my communications to the smallest dimensions; the absence of any variety of news here makes it the more easy to acquire the merit of brevity.

Another week's news has been received from Europe and Sebastopol still remains in the hands of the Russians—in fact its reduction is becoming less probable, a conclusion to which the English have at last arrived, if a fall in Consols is to be taken as an index of their views. The accounts prove that the Allies are growing weaker and the Russians stronger. Caurobert, in an official despatch to the Freneh governme nt, assigns as a reason for the slow progress of the siege the size and range of the Russian guns, being 68 pounders—thus admitting the formidable opposition the Allies are contending against. In a recent letter, alluding to the report that the attack on Sebaspotol had been commenced by land and sea, I expressed a doubt of the correctness of the latter part of the account. It appears now that a bombardment from the ships was commenced and kept up one day, after which it was discontinued owing to the damage received from the return fire of the Russians. In calculating the probability of the fall of Sebastopol the location of the defences should be kept in view. They consist of some ten or dozen forts of amazing strength, detached from each other, nearly equally divided between the North and South sides of the harbor. The town is on the South side, and on this side are the lines and approaches of the Allies. The town and all the forts on the South side may be taken, yet the forts on the North side will remain to be taken, and, what is of great consequence, they are so situated as to command the works on the other side. The Russian communications between the army on the outside and the North side of the harbor remain open. The Russians have also attacked, and once successfully, the base of their operations at Balaklava.

The news-mongers have returned to Washington for the winter as you have doubtless observed by the variety of rumors they despatch from the Capitol. Exciting news must be had, and if there is none based on real occurrences some must be manufactured. This will explain some rumors in a New York paper relative to changes in the Cabinet, which exist only in the imaginations or wishes of the propagators. The President is busy preparing his message, but of course, no one outside of the members of the Cabinet know anything as to its contents, whatever may be hazarded as a guess by the newsmongers aforesaid.

The New York Times has another article on the Slave-trade, suggested by the recent conviction of Capt. Smith, in which it says "we have not the slightest doubt that there are hundreds of Portugese—merchants and others in that city, who are constantly and largely engaged in this traffic—who carry it on as their regular business—who grow rich by it and live in splendid style and claim and hold high rank in the rich circles of our metropolis by virtue of their wealth thus acquired. We believe this fact is very generally known, and that not a month passes in which vessels are not cleared at the Custom House, of whose destination and employment in the slave trade, the houses who ship crews for them, and even the officials who prepare and sign their papers are morally certain." As Gov. Cobb, of Geo., remarked recently in a letter, when will the North discontinue the prosecution of the slave trade?

I have read with pleasure the Message of your excellent Governor. It is a straight-forward document, and presents the general condition of your State in a favorable view. His election to the Senate yesterday is received here with much gratification. He is a reliable Democrat, and a gentleman who in all things will have an eye to the interests of the State he will represent in part in the Senate. I hope that Mr. Biggs' election, whose nomination in caucus has been announced here in the newspapers, will be consummated to-day. His talents, industry and sound judgment will make him a most useful member of the Senate. The administration will find in each cordial and hearty supporters.

The money market in New York continues to be stringent without abatement, and the price of stocks to decline. Large amounts of most reliable stocks, used as a basis for banking operations at the West, have been sent to New York, and must be sold without regard to price. These stocks are taken up gradually by capitalists, at the present low rates, as a permanent investment. But specie is sent to the west to replace them, while a constant stream is flowing out to Europe. I apprehend that the worst has not yet come in New York. Many financiers think that a general liquidation is about commencement. This process must bring ruin to many, but if everything could be squared up and a commencement made anew on sounder principles of trade and finance, it would be of vast advantage to the country in the long run. Let the issue of paper money be forbidden, and expansions would cease; let the credit system be done away, the pay as you go principle take its place, and prosperity would be the future of our country. But so long as an artificial stimulus is given to credit by building one credit on another, the whole structure must tumble down about once in twenty years, and bury thousands under its ruins.

The Know Nothings have had a grand Council at Cincinnati. A gentlemen just from that City informs me that among the delegates were the Hon. K. Rayner of your State, who seemed to be one of the managing men of the conclave. Is Mr. Rayner a candidate for the Vice Presidency at the next election? MECKLENBURG.

Difficulty in relation to the Burial of a Priest.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 19. This city has this morning been the theatre of great excitement, growing out of the refusal of the Roman Catholic Bishop to allow the remains of the Rev. Mr. Brady, a catholic priest, to be buried near the church. In consequence of some difficulty with Brady, the Bishop had suspended him, and the treatment the latter had received is believed to have induced the disease with which he died.

The people siding with their former pastor, determined that he should be buried near the church as he had requested, and yesterday afternoon they dug a large place for the purpose of building a receptacle for the coffin. This morning the hole was found to have been filled up the orders of the Bishop, but the people were not to be defeated, and despite of the efforts of the Bishop and the priests, succeeded in again opening it.

The Bishop then refused to open the Church, for the funeral service; but, after an hour's delay, the people again succeeded, and the Church was opened; when it was found that the altar had been so fixed that mass could not be celebrated.

But the people again triumphed—had things put to rights—and now (at 12 o'clock) a priest from out of town, a friend of father Brady, is saying Mass. The streets, in the neighborhood, have been filled, all the morning, with an excited multitude.

Hogs are firm at $3 60 a $4. The whole number received thus far is 42,000 against 69,000 received up to the same period last year.

WOMAN. As the dove will clap its wings to its side, and cover and conceal the arrow that is preying on its vitals, so it is the nature of woman to hide from the world the pangs of wounded affection. With her the desire of the heart has failed. The great charm of existence is at an end. She neglects all the cheerful exercises that gladden the spirits, quicken the pulse, and send the tide of life in healthful currents through the veins. Her rest is broken; the sweet refreshment of sleep is poisoned by melancholy dreams; "a dry sorrow drinks her blood," until her feeble frame sinks under the last external assailant. Look for her after a little while, and you find friendship weeping over her untimely grave, and wondering that one who but lately glowed with all the radiance of health and beauty should now be brought down to "darkness and the worm." You will be told of some wintry chill, some slight indisposition, that laid her low, but no one knows the mental malady that previously sapped her strength, and made her so easy a prey to the spoiler.

Private accounts in the Moniteur newspaper contain the French narrative of the affair to October 30. On the 25th ult., 20,000 Russians attacked the French division of the army in the rear, which was defended by the Turks from redoubts the Russians took possession of. The English then commenced an attack, and sent word to Gen. Caurobert, who hastened with his second division and squadron of Chasseurs to the relief of the united French and English cavalry.

The enemy were repulsed by a brilliant charge, in which a hand combat with swords was sustained for five minutes. The positions were reclaimed, with an English loss of only 400, and the French loss was not so great.

Menschikoff, says General Leprande, took four redoubts, two of which he destroyed; but the other two he retained and fortified.

The Russians estimate the loss of the English cavalry at 500. Sixty English prisoners were taken from Odessa, and an assault was looked for by the besieged on the night of the 28th.

On the 1st of November, the siege of the works had so far advanced, that a third parallel was opened.

Menschikoff reports via St. Petersburgh, that to the evening of the 4th of November, the siege had continued, but without any material result. The fire from the English had become weaker; and the damage done to the Russian works was not much.

Nothing, it is said, can be attempted against the northern side of Sebastopol. Communication remains open and unobstructed.

An English report says the city of Sebastopol is in ruins—that the unburied corpses poison the air—and that the commanders of the allied armies had refused Menschikoff three hours even to bury his dead.

The Russian loss since the commencement of the siege is estimated at 12,000.

The English assert that Menschikoff had hoisted the hospital flag over the principal magazine in the place as a "decoy;" but they, the English, fired a shell into it, and a tremendous explosion followed.

An Admiralty notice announces that next spring a strict blocade of the mouth of the Danube will be enforced; also all the Russian ports on the Black Sea, Sea of Azof, Baltic and White Seas. The Paris Moniteur has a very conciliatory editorial on the subject.

On Saturday, at London, a telegraphic despatch was recived from Marseilles, which says, that it was certain in an action at Balaklava, on the 25th, consequent on a Russian surprise of the Turkish and Engish position, four hundred British Infantry, and six hundred British Cavalry, were totally annihilated. Eight hundred horses were killed! The Russions, it is said, took only sixty prisoners, the rest were all killed.

Out of six hundred British Light Infantry that were engaged, only 198 returned! and out of 800 English cavalry that were engaged, only 200 returned. The Seventeenth Division of Lancers were almost totally destroyed.

The English fleet, it is said, are not to be again tried before the walls of Sabastopol.

ARRIVAL OF THE HERMANN!!

NEW YORK, Nov. 24. The Hermann arrived today from Southampton, which place she left on the 8th. Her dates of course have been anticipated by the Canada; but she brings papers which contain a few additional facts.

A Russian despatch says a great storm occurred in the Black Sea on the 28th and 29th of October, which drove the allied fleets to sea; and so drenched the besiegers, that they were unable to continue the fire.

Soule was in Paris on his way to Bordeaux. The French Government say in withdrawing the prohibition intimated, no disrespect whatever was intended to the United States. The refusal was on mere personal grounds.

SETTLEMENT OF THE SOULE AFFAIR.

The New York Herald publishes a letter from London, dated Nov. 3, 8 P. M., which we subjoin, It will be seen that the order of the French Government refusing Mr. Soule the privilege of entering France has been revoked. The Washington papers state that despatches to the same effect have been received by the President:

Don Piatt, Secretary of the United States Legation at Paris, has just come over with despatches for Mr. Buchanan in relation to the discourtesy of the French government to the American Minister to Spain. Louis Napoleon, on last Sunday, invited Mr. Mason to a private interview at the Palace. In the course of discussion, Mr. Mason took occasion, with great firmness, to let his Majesty understand to the full the disastrous consequences of a war with America, and that he had no doubt on his mind as to the course which the American Minister to Paris should pursue in the premises. That he should at once, without proper explanations were given by the French court, assume the whole responsibility of the consequences, and ask for his passports. Louis Napoleon seemed as it just awakened to the bearing of American men and things upon European matters. He replied almost in the words of the article in the Constitutionnel, which you will have seen extensively republished in the English journals.

The excitement of the Americans in Europe in regard to this affair had run so high as to affect the prices of French stocks. As the general impression was that Louis Napoleon would not recede, the London operators sold a large amount of French rentes.

The consequence in Paris was the fall of stocks nealry one per cent. As such a tendency was particularly dangerous at this time, when the Emperor is in want of money, and the news from Sebastopol so gloomy that the festivitities at Compiegne are a second time postponed, he had no time for hesitation or dignity. His note to Mr. Mason, breathing a still more deprecatory tone than the Constitutionnel, was therefore communicated in substance to Paris Bourse, some hours before it was delivered formally to the Legation, in order to stop the alarming decline of funds. The note withdraws all objection to Mr. Soule's free passage through France. Louis Napoleon moreover invites Mr. Soule to proceed through the Empire on his way to Madrid.

It is certain that the whole influence of the British Ministry has been exerted, through Lord Clarendon, to produce the result that has been attained The French government did not anticipate so decided a stand as that taken by Mr. Mason; it thought that he would refer the matter to the government at Washington.

It is understood that George Sanders gives a dinner to Mr. Soule previous to his departure, at which will meet the French republicans—Ledru Rollin, Louis Blanc, Victor Hugo, and others. On his arrival at Paris, the American citizens there will invite him to a national banquet. Thence he goes to Bayonne, and leaves for Spain in the United States Steamer San Jacinto.

It is said that Luois Napoleon has been so fully convinced by the turn this affair has taken, of the impolicy of attempting to put a bridle on the wild Yankee nation, that he has resigned himself to a perfectly amiable behavior, at least until Sebastopol is really en prise.

RANAWAY FROM THE SUBSCRIBER, ON SATurday morning last, a negro woman named ELLEN, about five feet eight inches high, dark complexion; and had on a purple homespun dress, and had with her a copperas-checked homespun dress. I fear she may obtain a free pass, and endeavor to escape to a free State. She is 22 years of age.

A reward of twenty-five dollars will be paid for her apprehension and delivery to me, twenty miles west of Raleigh, on the Haywood road, or for lodging her in any jail, so that I get her again.

PROPOSALS FOR A LOAN TO THE COUNTY OF CRAVEN.—In accordance with the provisions of the Act of Assembly incorporating the "Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad Company," the County of Craven has subscribed to the Capital Stock of said company, one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

In order to meet the instalments which may be due, and which may hereafter become due on said subscription, the said County proposes to negotiate a loan or loans, to be secured by the bonds of the County.

By the order directing the issue of said bonds, they will bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually at the "Merchant's Bank of Newbern," or at the "Fulton Bank of New York," at the option of the holder. These bonds will be redeemable on the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and not before, without the consent of the holder. The bonds will be issued with Coupons attached, which will render the collection of the interest simple and easy.

The security upon which the said bonds will be based, will be the real estate and taxable polls of the County of Craven. The present assessed cash value of the real estate of the county, is one million one hundred and nine thousand eight hundred and twenty-two dollars, and the number of taxable polls is three thousad five hundred and eighty-two.

Proposals for said loan will be received, and all other necessary information upon this subject will be furnished by the subscribers, on application to them at Newbern.
